

Langley Research Center

LPR 3792.3

Effective Date: November 2, 2004

Expiration Date: December 31, 2006

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Responsible Office: Office of Human Resources

LPR 3792.3

PREFACE

This Langley Procedural Requirements (LPR) defines responsibilities for implementing the NASA program for a drug-free workplace as defined in NPR 3792.1, "Plan for a Drug-Free Workplace."

LAPD 3792.3, dated July 22, 2004, is rescinded and should be destroyed.

Original signed on file

Lana M. Couch
Associate Director for Business Management

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter		Page
1	General Provisions	1-1
2	Statement of Assignment of Responsibilities	2-1

1.0 General Provisions

This Langley Procedural Requirements (LPR) sets forth procedures and responsibilities for implementing the NASA program for a drug-free workplace as defined in NPR 3792.1, "Plan for a Drug-Free Workplace."

2.0 Statement of Assignment of Responsibilities

a. Drug Program Coordinator (DPC)

The Head, Organizational Development and Workforce Relations Branch (ODWRB), Office of Human Resources (OHR), is the LaRC DPC and is responsible for implementing the drug-free workplace program.

b. Medical Review Official (MRO)

The Director, LaRC Occupational Medical Center, is the LaRC MRO and is responsible for receiving and reviewing laboratory results generated from the NASA Drug-Free Workplace Plan.